

DANNY AND LIANNE

They are living in Los Angeles in California. Their parents have a house on the beach at Santa Monica. In the summer they are very lazy. They get up at ten o'clock and have breakfast. Then they go swimming. They have lunch on the beach. In the afternoon they often go windsurfing or play ball games on the beach.

After dinner they go and meet friends at Tommy's Beach Café. They sometimes go to a disco in the evening. They often go to bed quite late, at about ten or eleven o'clock. They like Californian life a lot.
